Travellers Traditions – Storytelling & Song- a celebration of Yellow on the Broom

Bells Blair Athol Distillery

Join us for an evening of “guid craic” at with Jess Smith, Essie Stewart, Claire Hewitt & guests.

As the dark, dreich nights are past and the broom is covered with yellow buds, we could all do with a story and a song. To celebrate Homecoming 2009 and our entry into Britain in Bloom, Pitlochry in Bloom invite you to help them celebrate our “Local Roots”, in an evening of whisky, water, wildlife & walking. Join us by the fire wi’ a dram and hear the spinning of a yarn or two. And whether you have a tale or a song to share or no, you will be most welcome.

Tickets priced £5 will be available at Pitlochry TIC from mid May onwards. Numbers are limited. Evening starts at 7.30pm, and free distillery tour for those who want to go round at 6.30pm

Pitlochry Festival Theatre see website for details. www.pitlochry.org.uk
