75 Years of Public Opening Anniversary Day

Blair Castle, Blair Atholl

Wednesday 1 June marks 75 years since Blair Castle first opened it's doors to the public.

In the Summer of 1936, the castle's first visitors were able to view its remarkable interiors and its many treasures for the first time, a privilege previously extended by invitation only and reserved for such illustrious guests as Queen Victoria and Bonnie Prince Charlie. The first day of public opening attracted 286 people and tours to the top of the tower could be enjoyed for just one penny!

All visitors to Blair Castle on this special day will receive a souvenir postcard. In addition, the 286th individual visitor will also receive a complimentary bottle of Atholl Highlander whisky and be invited to stand for a celebratory photograph with a member of the Atholl Highlanders regiment.

To add to the sense of celebration Afternoon Teas will be served in the castle ballroom from 2.30pm to 4.30pm. Enjoy sampling the selection of sandwiches, nibbles and cakes served on tiered silver cake stands in the grandest of settings. To view menu click here.

Afternoon Teas £9.95 per person. Tel 01796 481207 www.atholl-estates.co.uk

 Following his sell-out nationwide show

 RAMBLING: WALKING THE WALL.
 Never one to take the easy option, Mark decided to go rambling in the Middle East and walked the entire length of the Israeli Separation Barrier crossing between the Israeli and the Palestinian side. This is the story of 300 000 settlers; a 750 km wall; six arrests, one stoning; too much hummus and a simple question... "Can you ever get away from it all with a good walk?" £15
